The Animal Dialogues Craig Childs, 2007-12-12 From one of the finest nature writers at work in America today a lyrical dramatic illuminating tour of the hidden domain of wild animals Whether recalling the experience of being chased through the Grand Canyon by a bighorn sheep swimming with sharks off the coast of British Columbia watching a peregrine falcon perform acrobatic stunts at 200 miles per hour or engaging in a tense face off with a mountain lion near a desert waterhole Craig Childs captures the moment so vividly that he puts the reader in his boots Each of the forty brief compelling narratives in The Animal Dialogues focuses on the author's own encounter with a particular species and is replete with astonishing facts about the species behavior habitat breeding and lifespan But the glory of each essay lies in Childs's ability to portray the sometimes brutal beauty of the wilderness to capture the individual essence of wild creatures to transport the reader beyond the human realm and deep inside the animal kingdom

The Animal's Defender and Zoophilist, 1904 Animal Ecology Royal Norton Chapman, 1926 Between the Species, 1995 Exploring Animal Encounters Dominik Ohrem, Matthew Calarco, 2018-07-28

This collection of essays offers multifaceted explorations of animal encounters in a range of philosophical, cultural, literary, and historical contexts. Exploring Animal Encounters encourages us to think about the richness and complexity of animal lives and human-animal relations, foregrounding the intricate roles nonhuman creatures play in the always-already more-than-human sphere of ethics and politics. In this way, the essays in this volume can be understood as a contribution to alternative imaginings of interspecies coexistence in a time in which the issue of human relations with earth and earth-others has come to the fore with unprecedented force and severity.

Animal Messengers Regula Meyer, 2015-05-29

An animal-by-animal guide that reveals the meaning behind each encounter we have with animals. Provides sophisticated psychological insight into encounters with more than 150 animals: birds, reptiles, insects, and aquatic life. Explores how animals reflect our inner world, drawing our attention to inner turmoil, relationship issues, spiritual growth, and the deepest needs of the soul. Explains how the meaning of each encounter depends on whether the animal was hunting, fleeing, hiding, or acting indifferent when sighted. We each feel connections to animals in our own way. Some of us have pets. Others admire animals in the wild. Because the outer world often reflects our internal states and animals are highly sensitive to our energies, each encounter with an animal signals something about our inner world and innermost concerns. The spontaneous, surprising contacts are the telling ones: a sparrow landing next to you, a fox darting across the road, or a bee alighting on your hand. However, even regular encounters with our pets can draw attention to our inner world and what needs to be thought over and grappled with, from psychic turmoil and relationship issues to spiritual growth and the deepest needs of the soul. Providing sophisticated psychological insight into encounters with more than 150 animals: birds, reptiles, insects, and aquatic life. Regula Meyer explores the messages each animal provides for us on a personal level when we encounter them. She explains how the meaning of each encounter depends on whether the animal was hunting, fleeing, hiding, or acting indifferent when sighted. For example, a fleeing animal is prompting you to pursue a subject consciously, while a hiding animal tells you to patiently observe something and draw insights from it. The author shows how animal encounters in the wild cause us to contemplate the present moment and inspire the flow of our perceptions, leading us to meditate on important concerns we may be ignoring or unaware of. Pets and other animals we see every day act as intensifiers of the energy for which they stand. With this animal-by-animal guide, you can discover the deep meaning behind your encounters with animals and the messages they bring as oracles of our souls.
