Authors and Art Movements of the Twentieth Century Declan Lloyd,2022-12-30 This book explores the great influence of twentieth century artists and art movements on many major writers of the twentieth century It focuses in particular on four seminal writers who were strongly influenced by very different movements they are Gertrude Stein and Cubism William S Burroughs and Dada J G Ballard and Surrealism and Douglas Coupland and Pop Art For these authors the presence and influence of these art movements is not limited to a small cluster of texts but can be felt much more expansively across their work infiltrating all manner of multifarious and complex dimensions These authors are all keen to explore new methods of shifting the signature styles and forms of visual art into the literary world Alongside these more overt methods of artistic transposition the authors also often demonstrate a deep philosophical affinity with their chosen movements This book uproots and examines these kinds of artistic engagements and also explores the authors own personal connections with the world of art For these are all authors not only interested in visual art but also intimately connected to the art world Indeed some went on to become renowned artists in their own right while others were closely associated with major historical art figures Above all however they are unified by a kindred interest in exploring how the methods and philosophies of art can be transposed into and even challenge the constraints of traditional forms of literature

A Wiser Century? Thomas Giegerich, 2009 The Hague Peace Conferences of 1899 and 1907 dealt with three interlinked topics the peaceful settlement of disputes including by arbitration the restriction of armaments and military budgets the laws of war The first two were aimed at preventing the outbreak of war not by restricting the jus ad bellum in its substance but by inducing states not to use their continuing war power and to limit the growth of their war machinery The third topic was concerned with containing the brutality of war where its prevention had failed Whereas the Conferences succeeded in codifying the laws of war they made less progress with regard to the peaceful settlement of disputes and failed on limiting armaments Worst of all they could not prevent the outbreak of World War I This volume uses the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the Second Hague Peace Conference to follow up on the then concerns and objectives looking at the Hague legacy through the lens of today s problems The 27 contributions treat the most pressing recent issues of non proliferation and disarmament international humanitarian law and judicial dispute settlement Three questions run like a thread through this volume 1 In which areas have the promises of 1899 and 1907 remained unfulfilled and why 2 In which areas has there been progress in which other areas perhaps regression 3 What are our prospects and how can we international lawyers help shaping a promising future in respect of the prevention and containment of war Whereas the empire of law in international relations and the age of international justice which were envisaged in the Convention for the Pacific Settlement of International Disputes of 1899 1907 have not yet arrived on the global level we Europeans have made considerable progress since 1945 But in the age of globalization Europe cannot for long remain an Isle of the Blest Together with the other peoples of the United Nations we must therefore strive toward fulfilling the promises of the UN Charter and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights peace justice freedom and prosperity for everyone and all nations large and small Only then can wars be prevented
