HYMN

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnished
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house forevermore
My dwelling place shall be.

HYMN

And did those feet in ancient time
Walk upon England's mountains green?
And was the holy Lamb of God
On England's pleasant pastures seen?
And did the countenance divine
Shine forth upon our clouded hills?
And was Jerusalem builded here
Among those dark Satanic Mills?

Bring me my bow of burning gold!
Bring me my arrows of desire!
Bring me my spear! O clouds, unfold!
Bring me my chariot of fire!
I will not cease from mental fight,
Nor shall my sword sleep in my hand,
Till we have built Jerusalem
In England's green and pleasant Land.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven;
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Non Religious Funeral Litany:

Death Liturgy and Ritual Paul P.J. Sheppy,2017-07-05 Death Liturgy and Ritual is a two volume study of Christian funerary theology and practice presenting an invaluable account of funeral rites and the central issues involved for compilers and users Paul Sheppy writes from direct experience of conducting funerals and of drafting liturgical resources for others In Volume II A Commentary on Liturgical Texts reviews a wide range of current Christian funeral rites and examines how they reflect both the Church s concern for the death and resurrection of Christ and the contemporary secular demand for funerals which celebrate the life of the deceased The companion volume Volume I A Pastoral and Liturgical Theology proposes that the Church ought to construct its theological agenda in dialogue with other fields of study Sheppy argues for a Christian statement about death that finds its basis in the Paschal Mystery since human death must be explained by reference to Jesus death descent to the dead and resurrection Using the three phases of van Gennep s theory of rites of passage the author shows how the Easter triduum may be seen as normative for Christian liturgies of death

Funeral rites help people to cope with their loss and express their religious needs Even in a secularised society such as that in the Netherlands large groups of people still fall back on ecclesiastic rites when a loved one dies But how does one explain that there are more people participating in church funerals than people who assign religion a focal place in their lives How do present day funeral goers regard the rites in which they participate Does the rite actually help them to bridge the gaps left by the deceased This study considers such questions from the angle of ritual and liturgical studies by way of empirical research into perceptions of present day church funerals in the Netherlands

The last great work of the age of reason the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics Despite its occasional ugliness the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained within its volumes. It is especially strong in its biographical entries. These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians and scholars.
