The Wink!

The big day was here. Rosa was in the school 10 orchestra and tonight was the winter concert. It was 19 the first time she would play the piano in front of 30 an audience.
32 Rosa was worried all day in school. When she got 42 home she had butterflies in her stomach. She was still 52 scared when she left for the concert. Rosa went 61 backstage and peeked out from behind the curtain and 70 watched her friend Sam play his horn. Sam never made 80 a mistake. He looked fine. Then Rosa saw her parents 90 in the third row. Her father caught her eye and winked.
101 Suddenly, Rosa knew she could do it. She would 110 pretend she was playing for just her mom and dad.
120 Rosa stepped onto the stage. She played her song well.
130 When it was over, Rosa grinned. She winked at 139 her parents and ran off the stage. Rosa's stage fright
149 was over.

The Role of the Speech-Language Pathologist in RtI Wayne A. Foster, 2018-01-08 The Role of the Speech Language Pathologist in RtI Implementing Multiple Tiers of Student Support is an innovative resource for school based speech language pathologists SLPs The author examines the current interaction among special and general educators and identifies how SLPs best fit into a multitiered response to instruction process This collaboration requires school staff share the same vision on the operation of the system understand their respective roles and merge the curricular with the developmental perspective to build basic skills in support of student performance growth General educators have traditionally utilized the language of curriculum e g standards pacing guides formative and summative assessments to talk about student goals and achievement Special educators including SLPs most often utilize the language of development e g norms percentile ranks development milestones to measure student growth The Role of the Speech Language Pathologist in RtI assesses this apparent clash in nomenclature and identifies new ways for collaboration and cooperation among faculty and administration In order for the SLP to be an effective partner in the development and implementation of RtI the author proposes that SLPs should understand the language of general education be able to translate the curricular needs of students into skill based units that can be measured and progress monitored have full understanding of the developmental progression of skills and how that progression links to curriculum standards and be knowledgeable on evidence based practices that can have a meaningful impact on closing developmental gaps and result in higher achievement outcomes This text provides the blueprint for the implementation of a system of student support that was envisioned in the 2004 reauthorization of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act IDEIA Unlike other books on RtI this essential resource addresses the very specific roles that different school level professionals must play to make the system effective No other text provides SLPs with such a comprehensive schoolwide perspective on the different roles in the process the different languages used by the professionals in those roles and how to navigate those different perspectives

Integrated Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Kent McIntosh, Steve Goodman, 2016-02-04 Many schools have implemented academic response to intervention RTI and schoolwide positive behavioral interventions and supports PBIS as separate initiatives This book provides keys to making these programs more effective seamless efficient and sustainable by combining them into a single multi tiered system of support MTSS Steps and strategies are outlined for integrating data structures practices teams and district systems Contributing authors present detailed case examples of successful MTSS implementation in three states In a large size format the book features 27 reproducible checklists and evaluation tools Purchasers get access to a companion website where they can download and print the reproducible materials plus other helpful resources This book is in The Guilford Practical Intervention in the Schools Series edited by Sandra M Chafouleas
