Games Without Frontiers:

Games Without Frontiers, 1981 Gerald A. Voorhees, Joshua Call, Katie Whitlock, 2012-11-02 This collection brings the weight of contemporary social theory and media criticism to bear on the public controversy and intellectual investigation of first person shooter games

Short Games and Active Learning in Political Science Derek Glasgow, Mark Harvey, Ryan Gibb, James Fielder, 2026-03-13 As political science instructors have increasingly turned to games and simulations in the classroom to educate and engage their students scholars have worked not only to demonstrate their effectiveness but also to justify their use to occasionally skeptical colleagues With instructional time always at a premium this book focuses exclusively on short games and simulations activities that are limited to one class period These powerful activities demand less instructional time and deliver substantial pedagogical benefits Additionally this book provides ready to use activities for teachers to utilize across Political Science subfields It covers activities that can be categorized in American Politics International Relations Comparative Politics Public Policy and Administration Political Theory and activities that are not easily categorized into a field

The Palgrave Handbook on the Pedagogy of International Relations Theory Jamie Frueh, Jacqui Ala, Michael P.A. Murphy, Paul F. Diehl, 2025-02-11 The Palgrave Handbook on the Pedagogy of International Relations Theory is a collection that explores how best to teach the systems of thought that organize the study of international relations and global politics All chapters document and advance intradisciplinary conversations about the challenge of helping students understand the nuances of IR theory Authors document strategies they have successfully applied to that challenge in a variety of contexts and encourage readers to creatively adapt to the challenges of their own pedagogical contexts The handbook is organized around four themes teaching theory for particular audiences and classroom contexts tips for teaching specific theories an exploration of pedagogical approaches to teaching theory and pedagogical considerations specific to courses in geographic regions

Games and Learning Alliance Sander Bakkes, Francesco Bellotti, Pierpaolo Dondio, Manuel Ninaus, Vanissa Wanick, Antonio Bucchiarone, 2026-01-01 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 14th International Conference on Games and Learning Alliance GALA 2025 held in Utrecht The Netherlands during November 19 21 2025 The 33 full papers and 24 short papers included in this book were carefully reviewed and selected from 142 submissions They were organized in topical sections as follows educational science track game design track media and cultural studies track technology track application track and short papers

War, Technology, Anthropology Koen Stroeken, 2011-12-01 Technologies of the allied warfare in Iraq and Afghanistan such as remote controlled drones and night vision goggles allow the user to virtualize human targets This coincides with increased civilian casualties and a perpetuation of the very insecurity these technologies are meant to combat This concise volume of research and reflections from different regions across Asia the Middle East Latin America and Africa observes how anthropology operates as a technology of war It tackles recent theories of humans in society colluding with imperialist claims including anthropologists who have become involved professionally in warfare through their knowledge of cultures renamed as human terrain systems The chapters link varied yet crucial domains of inquiry from battlefields technologies military driven scientific policy and economic warfare to martyrdom cosmology shifts media coverage of distant wars and the virtualizing techniques and war porn soundtracks of the gaming industry

The Logic of Innovation Johanna Gibson,2016-03-03 The Logic of Innovation examines not merely the supposed problem of the efficacy and relevance of intellectual property and the nature of innovation and creativity in a digital environment but also the very circumstances of that inquiry itself Social life has itself become a sphere of production but how might that be understood within the cultural and structural transformation of creativity innovation and property Through a highly original interlocutory and therapeutic approach to the issues in play the author addresses the concepts of innovation and the digital by means of an investigation through literature and the imagination of new scenarios for language business and legal reform The book undertakes a complex inquiry into innovation and property through the wonder of Alice s journeys in Wonderland and through the Looking glass The author presents a new theory of familiar production to account for the kinship that has emerged in both informal and commercial modes of innovation and foregrounds the value of use as crucial to the articulation of intellectual property within contemporary models of production and commercialization in the digital

Games Without Frontiers Joe Kennedy,2016-08-16 Is soccer inherently political What does soccer actually mean today Games Without Frontiers seeks force us to think about what we mean when we say soccer Along the way it skewers media cliches about footballers and fans considers the sport s implications for radical politics and aesthetics and situates the working man s game in relation to twenty first century discussions of political authenticity Written half as a travelogue this book seeks to protect football from some of its would be saviors without ever losing sight of what it means to have a fan s investment in the game
