For Spikey Moonbeam, that price will cut his family and his friends off from Staranana and leave them stranded on an alien world at the very dawn of time. But not just any alien world. Earth. After discovering a seemingly innocent means of observing events through time, the Moonbeams, Scotty, TB, and Garlan find themselves alone in Earth's biblical past with very little hope of ever returning home. Together with some of the most famous characters from throughout the Bible, they will have to fight their way through time. Along the way, new friendships will be forged, new enemies will be vanquished, curses will be pronounced, and children will grow up. In the end, only One can save them, only One can send them home. But will they find this One before time is irrevocably altered? And more importantly, will they find Him before this adventure is To Be Continued. Book Review Digest, 1930 Saturday Review, 1890
