The Marriage Proposal English Edition:

English Classics in Audiovisual Translation Irene Ranzato, Luca Valleriani, 2024-10-23 This collection explores the translation of dialogue from the adaptations of literary classics across audiovisual media engaging with the question of what makes a classic through an audiovisual translation lens The volume seeks to fill a gap on the translation of classic texts in AVT research which has tended to focus on contemporary media The book features well known British literary texts but places a special emphasis on adaptations of the works of Jane Austen and William Shakespeare figures whose afterlives have mirrored each other in the proliferation of film and television adaptations of their work Chapters analyze myriad modes of AVT including dubbing subtitling SDH and voice over to demonstrate the unique ways in which these modes come together in adaptations of classics and raise questions about censorship language ideologies cultural references translation strategies humor and language variation In focusing on translations across geographic contexts the book offers a richer picture of the linguistic cultural and ideological implications of translating literary classics for the screen and the enduring legacy of these works on a global scale This book will be of interest to scholars in audiovisual translation literary translation comparative literature film and television studies and media studies
